

WHAT'S NEW AT HEMINGTON

APRIL 26, 2017

There is a lot going on at Hemington Wealth Management, including an office move in Tysons and a new office in Chicago. Please read on for important company updates and information.

Hemington Opens Chicago Office

Jen Dawson, CFP® Joins the Team as Managing Director, Chicago

We are delighted to announce that Jen Dawson, CFP® has joined Hemington as Managing Director & Senior Wealth Advisor, based in Chicago.

Jen brings 10+ years of financial planning experience to high net worth individuals and families. While building a Hemington practice in Chicago, she will also be assisting many of our current clients on advanced financial planning issues. Jen is a speaker and thought leader on issues surrounding women and money, making her a perfect fit with Hemington's focus on serving women of wealth. We are grateful that such a talent in the industry has chosen Hemington over her many options.

In her free time, Jen enjoys yoga, golf, and running with her husband. She has finished five of the world's major marathons, and hopes to cross the finish line in Tokyo in the coming years to complete all six in the series.

Jen will be joining Eileen at the National Personal FA's annual conference in May as a co-speaker on: How To Best Advise Breadwinner Women.

Welcome to the team, Jen!

Our address in Chicago is:

Hemington Wealth Management
150 S. Wacker, Suite 2400
Chicago IL, 60606

Jen's contact information is:
jen.dawson@hemingtonwm.com

Telephone: (312) 757-5339

We Are Moving Offices In Tysons Corner!

We have outgrown our current office space in Tysons and will be moving about one mile east on Rt 7 to:

Hemington Wealth Management
7651 Leesburg Pike
Falls Church, VA 22043

The new office renovation is taking longer than anticipated but we should be settled in by July. The office will be twice as large as our current office and will allow us to accommodate our growing team. Visitor parking will be easy and directly in front of the entrance. In the meantime, please do not send any time-sensitive mail to either address; rather contact your advisor for logistics.

Eileen O'Connor – Investment News's Woman To Watch

Eileen O'Connor Recognized by Investment News as One of Only 20 "Women to Watch"

Eileen was recognized by the industry's leading publication, Investment News, as a 'Woman to Watch' for her contributions to the wealth management profession and her thought leadership on women and money. Eileen has been widely published and has been quoted in hundreds of publications on various wealth management issues. Selected from hundreds of women leaders in all aspects of finance, Eileen was thrilled to be included in the second only such list by Investment News. She was invited to participate in a "think tank" at the awards ceremony in NYC where women leaders discussed and debated the shortage of women in finance and how the group could be a force for change. Investment News dedicated the March issue to the honorees. Eileen's fourteen-year old daughter, Mary Margaret, was Eileen's guest at the awards ceremony at the Pierre Hotel.
